This American made product pulls in both Alaskans and visitors with its upbeat treatment of Alaska's most talked about subject. Expertly researched and written and lavishly illustrated by top photographers, the wealth of information in this calendar is the extra draw that makes it an easy sell. Visitors appreciate finding something different from the furry critter calendars. Locals buy extra copies to send to friends and relatives. This Alaskan calendar sells well from summer through the holidays.

Alaska mapmaker's revenge

suitable for framing

We figured it was about time Alaska was freed from the humiliating little box off the coast of California and restored to its proper place on maps. So let the folks down south see how it feels to be "boxed." This map does Alaska justice with its detailed coastline, shaded relief, rivers, lakes and pretty much every city, town, village and settlement throughout the great state. Also has fun section of comparisons between Alaska and the Lower 49. Those who see this map and "get" it, laugh, then buy one.

- retail price $15.00
- 17 x 25" wall map
- printed on substantial, quality paper
- maps come rolled or flat, not folded
- tubes available for at-cost purchase
- high social media/word of mouth sales
- made in Alaska, USA

Shipping note: due to the nature of this product, shipping costs may be somewhat higher than its weight would indicate, especially if the order includes tubes. If you purchase the optional tubes, we will insert the maps into the tubes for you. If you do not want tubes, we will ship all the maps in one larger tube, or flat.
